Numb. 1521

The Daily Gazetteer.

MONDAY, MAY 5. 1740.

Nº. 1519.

To the Author of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

SIR,

Do not think so meanly of the present Administration, my Prince and Country, as some Writers would insinuate I ought to do. I am glad to see any Thing executed, which may redound to the Honour of either; and do not secretly repine at the Success of our Arms evincing deep Penetration, wise Counsels, and prudent Conduct, because a Prime Minister will thereby receive Applause, and I myself be prov'd a False Prophet: But, on the contrary, I rejoice, that I have an Opportunity to celebrate the Praises of those whose Conduct I was doubtful of. This will appear in the following Lines, the Work of an Hour; which you have Liberty either to insert in your Paper, or throw entirely aside as you think proper. I am,

Trowbridge, April 12, 1740.

Mater Seva, &c.

VENUS Torch of fierce Desires,
BACCHUS, who exalts her Fires,
Salacious Sloth, Lascivious Ease,
Provoke my Soul once more to please;
Once more the Sweets, the Joys to prove,
Which flow from long-neglected Love.
My CHLOE's Form appears more bright
Than Parian Marble's Virgin-white:
Her Elegance betrays my Heart,
And kindles Flames in ev'ry Part.
What Blushes o'er her Cheeks arise!
What Magick sparkles in her Eyes!
She wantons with such Grace and Ease,
That ev'n her Folly seems to please:
So soft is her enchanting Mien!——
——It's too enchanting to be seen!
VENUS has left her Paphian Towers,
And all her Flames into me pours.
I burn! I burn! my Soul's possess'd,
Her Demon rages in my Breast;
Nought but his Sports, and her own Fire,
The Goddess vows shall tune my Lyre.
The War on Porto Bello's Shore
The Light'ning's Flash, the Thunder's Roar,
The God-like Deeds by VERNON done,
The Castles storm'd, the Conquests won,
Iberian Terror, Gallick Fright,
Astonish'd FLEURY pale with Spite:
Of GEORGE divinely good and great,
In Council dealing Europe's Fate,
Who bids contending Nations cease,
And lo! the World is hush'd in Peace,
JANUS' Brazen Gates unfold,
And Terror thro' the Orb is roll'd,
The Goddess swears I shall not sing,
They're Themes too lofty for my String;
Her Deeds above a Mortal Tongue,
Should only be by PHOEBUS sung.
Then quick, my Slaves, an Altar rear,
Of Turf, the Glory of the Year,
With it the holy Simples spread,
Above let sacred Gums be laid,
A Victim's Blood upon them show'r,
And BACCHUS from the Goblet pour,
With Tapers light the Sacrifice,
And send its Incense to the Skies.
'Tis done; the Flames mount up the Air,
And bear to Heav'n my Sighs, my Pray'r;
And she who once deny'd her Charms,
CHLOE! will sink into my Arms!

AMERICA.

The SPEECH of JONATHAN BELCHER, Esq; to the General Assembly of the Province of New Hampshire, February 1, 1739-40.

Gentlemen of the Council, and of the House of Representatives,

THE last Ships from England have brought us His Majesty's Declaration of War against the King of Spain; and this extraordinary Event will greatly affect the Commerce and Safety of this Province; it ought then to be your first Care in this Session to have the Publick Treasury well supplied, that the Frontiers by Sea and Land may be put into a State of good Defence.

You will also take the needful Care for paying the just Debts of the Province, and for the further Support of the Government.

Fort William and Mary, the only Fort of the Province, is in a poor Condition for Defence, and I shall in a few Days lay the particular State of it before you; when I hope you will do what may be necessary on your Part, that it may be sufficiently repair'd and furnish'd with all warlike Stores and with Men, and thereby render it capable of protecting the People and Trade of the Province.

You are sensible, Gentlemen, I have often recommended this Matter to former Assemblies, whose Answers have been, That the People were not able to support this Fort, nor defray the other necessary Charge of Government.

I am glad to observe to you, that the Officers of the Militia tell me the two Regiments of the Province are well furnish'd with Arms and Ammunition, and that they are exercis'd according to Law.—— But that the Appearances are thin on Muster-Days, the Fine for Non-Appearance not being equal to Twelve Pence Sterling: And altho' I have often urg'd the raising of the Military Fines on former Assemblies, yet nothing is done in it to this Day; I would therefore now again earnestly recommend this Matter to you, that the private Companies in their Musters, and also the Regiments at their general Musters, may be full, and so the whole Militia better disciplin'd and fitted for Service whenever there may be Occasion for them.—— Such a Law as I now mention, pass'd about two Years ago in the Massachusetts-Bay, and the fine Appearance of the Militia of that Province is hardly to be equall'd in any of his Majesty's American Dominions.

I would take this Opportunity also to repeat to you the Instances I have made once and again to other Assemblies, for bringing in a good Bill for the more effectual Preservation of the Mast Trees for the Royal Navy.

You may depend you cannot in any Proceeding of this Session more recommend the Province to the Favour of the King, than by making ample Provision on this Head; and it will be better taken at this Time, when there may be a great Demand for Masts for the large Fleet the King has lately equipp'd.

You will, Gentlemen, give Attention to what I have laid before you of so much Consequence to his Majesty's Honour and Service, as well as to the Welfare and Prosperity of his good Subjects of this Province; and whatever you may have to lay before me to the same good Purposes, I shall readily join with you in, and so this Session may be brought to a happy Conclusion.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever, tho' that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetes, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experienc'd never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, or Urinary Passages, whichit almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Confinement, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weaknesses and Decays of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigu'd with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of the worst Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and of All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Ranby's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with proceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignant Taint of the Foul-Disease is intirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.
